Speaker

Tyrone Williams, running for City Council District 2, spoke.

Old Business

Report on Crestline Park by Dottie Miller. We have been given a plan for our park, but have no prices to know the equipment we can put on the pad. Also, there is no chair to put a small child in, on the swing set. Dottie and Don Ferguson are working on a sign which will combine the information posted on 6 or 7 signs at the entrances to the park.

New Business

CNA will not meet during June and July, 2017, by motion from Harry Moore and second by Don Ferguson, all voted in favor because of lack of business for the neighborhood. We will meet again on August 24th.

Sam Saia presented plans for 4501 Montevallo Rd. property which includes 9 single family cottage home with center courtyard. Lowell Garrett moved we allow Sam to have the property rezoned to qR4 as single family or cottage homes only. Dottie Miller seconded the motion, and there was counted raised hand vote of 6 in favor and 1 opposed to the motion.

Reports

East Police Officer Sentell reported that the McDonalds/Texaco 14 year old robbers have been arrested as well as the the man who has been stealing yard equipment. He was asked about how to get a carry permit and Hunter informed us to go online to Sheriff office for application, fill out and take to Sheriffs office.

Public Works took information on pot holes, etc.

City Council Earline Prince took reports of addresses reported to Public Works.

Brandon Smith, BPL Eastwood Library announced that Summer Reading will begin June 8 at 10:45am. For those needing help with resumes or tutoring, they have CD's which will help you write your resume and people to review your resume. Bards and Brews is June 1 during Art Crawl at Pizitz, no brews this time.

Don Ferguson asked for information on the Cox car lot, Harry said they were painting, Barbara will get in touch with Mr. Cox and request that we have his promised agreement with us by our August, 2017 meeting.

After a request for other business and there being none, Hunter adjourned the meeting at 7:25p.
